

Blow, Fresh Wind

Words & Music by Roger A. Howard

C C/B F/A G F C/E

1. Blow, fresh wind, and stir the soul held down by dark - ness,
 2. Soar, pure dove, and bring Your peace; by grace a - lone may
 3. Burn, bright flame, and stoke dull thought; by faith a - lone may
 4. Pierce, sharp sword, the will - ful heart, Your Word a - lone keep
 5. Claim, O Christ, Your ho - ly bride, help her to walk Your

Dm G E Am⁷ F C/E

mired in sin; re - store our vig - or, make us whole, a love — take wing. May dis - cord still and striv - ing cease and joy — a - light. May smold' - ring love burn high and hot and up - per - most. Where false - hood hides, pry joints a - part, that nar - row way. Re - form Your Church, for whom You died, to new cre - a - tion, right with - in.

Dm⁷ C/E G⁷ C

 des - ert all sands eyes be - come a spring.
 draw all may see, toward day from night.
 all fol - low You and to none end - may less boast.
 day.

Blow, Fresh Wind p. 2

G Am⁷ Dm G⁷

Spir - it of God, — re - new our song, the breeze of Your will car - ry

F/C C E Am Am/G

us a - long. De - spair turn to hope, the weak make strong.

F F² G^{sus} G⁷ C

Go where You will, — blow, — fresh wind. —